

Nomination form – The Prince Edward Island Veterinary Leadership Award

The Prince Edward Island Veterinary Leadership Award is the highest award given by the PEIVMA. It recognizes a veterinarian's strong career of achievement and dedication to the profession, his or her Prince Edward Island community, and the health and welfare of animals.

Veterinarians may be nominated by animal owners, colleagues, or community organizations on Prince Edward Island. Anyone may nominate an eligible veterinarian by completing and returning this nomination form and a detailed letter of nomination (up to two typed pages), which describes how the veterinarian has met the award criteria. The impact he/she has made on the profession of veterinary medicine on Prince Edward Island, or the significance of their contribution to animal health and welfare, and/or the public should be clearly conveyed.

Although a nomination can be submitted at any time through the year, in order for it to be considered for presentation at the 2017 annual general meeting, these two documents should be submitted by October 6, 2017 to PEI Veterinary Leadership Award, Prince Edward Island Veterinary Medical Association, Box 21097, 465 University Avenue, Charlottetown, PEI, C1A 9H6 or fax it to 902 367 3176
